

Our promise to you at CELC

At CELC you are the most important part of everything we do.

We promise to do everything we can to keep you safe, respected, included and cared for.

- You have the right to feel safe all the time.
- We will respectfully listen to and hear you.
- If you tell us something feels wrong and unsafe, we will listen and act quickly.
- We respect all children - no matter your culture, language, family, abilities, or experiences.
- We will not allow bullying, abuse, racism, or unfair treatment at CELC.
- Our staff are trained to look after you and keep you safe.
- Our staff are checked to make sure they are safe people.
- We will keep learning and improving so you always feel safe and welcome.
- We believe you are capable and your voice matters, and we will work with you to include your ideas and thoughts into our learning spaces wherever we can.
